4. Legal obligations

It is Abris' policy to fully comply with the letter and spirit of all relevant anti-corruption laws, including laws with international reach such as the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). Because Abris has significant activity beyond the U.S. borders and continues to expand into developing international markets, it is imperative that all employees understand the activities prohibited by, and ensure Abris' compliance with, anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws in the countries in which the Company does business. Each employee, officer, director or agent has the responsibility for compliance with the FCPA within their area of authority and to report any violations to their immediate supervisor.

5. Policy statement

5.1. All employees and associated persons of Abris Distribution Inc are required to:

- a) comply with any anti-bribery and anti-corruption legislation that applies in any jurisdiction in any part of the world in which they might be expected to conduct business
- b) act honestly, responsibly and with integrity
- c) safeguard and uphold the Company's core values by operating in an ethical, professional and lawful manner at all times.

5.2. Bribery of any kind is strictly prohibited. Under no circumstances should any provision be made, money set aside or accounts created for the purposes of facilitating the payment or receipt of a bribe.

5.3. Abris recognizes that industry practices may vary from country to country or from culture to culture. What is considered unacceptable in one place may be normal or usual practice in another. Nevertheless, a strict adherence to the guidelines set out in this Policy is expected of all employees and associated persons at all times. If in doubt as to what might amount to bribery or what might constitute a breach of this Policy, refer the matter to your line manager or the Anti-Corruption Officer.

5.4. In summary, it is not acceptable to give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality with the expectation or hope that a business advantage will be received, or to reward a business advantage already given, or to accept a payment, gift or hospitality from an associated persons that you know or suspect is offered or provided with the expectation that it will obtain a business advantage for them.

5.5. Any payment or gift to a public official or other person to secure or accelerate the prompt or proper performance of a routine government procedure or process, otherwise known as a "facilitation payment", is also strictly prohibited.

6. Responsibilities and reporting procedure

6.1. It is the contractual duty and responsibility of all employees and associated persons to take whatever reasonable steps are necessary to ensure compliance with this Policy and to prevent, detect and report any suspected bribery or corruption. You must immediately disclose to the Company management (Director, General manager) any knowledge or suspicion you may have that you, or any other employee or associated person, has plans to offer, promise or give a bribe or to request, agree to receive or accept a bribe in connection with the business of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, this includes reporting your own wrongdoing. The duty to prevent, detect and report any incident of bribery and any potential risks rests not only with the directors of the Company but equally to all employees and associated persons.

6.2. The Company encourages all employees and associated persons to be vigilant and to report any unlawful conduct, suspicions or concerns promptly and without undue delay so that investigation may proceed and any action can be taken expeditiously. The Company will take all reports seriously and will investigate accordingly. Confidentiality will be maintained during the investigation to the extent that this is practical and appropriate in the circumstances. The Company is committed to taking appropriate action
